30 June 2014: World events

INDIA – Floods
- Heavy rains continue affecting parts of northeastern India, causing floods and landslides.
- According to local media (as of 28 June), at least nine people were killed on 27 June in the city of Guwahati (Assam State).
- In the next 24 h heavy rain and thunderstorms may still affect parts of northeastern India, including Assam State.

WMO, IOM, Media (1, 2)

IRAQ – Conflict and humanitarian situation
- Successive waves of population displacement are taking place across conflict-affected areas of Iraq. Large numbers are being displaced in Salah al-Din. UN agencies and NGOs estimate: 45 000 families from Tikrit and 15 000 from Baiji have fled their homes in the past days. Widespread displacement from Hamdaniyah/Qaraqosh is underway.
- 6 000 people arrived at the Khazer IDP camp during the weekend. In Zummar, Sinjar and Talkaif, IDP families occupy 125 school buildings after having fled the fighting in northwestern Nineawa.
- Humanitarian organisations continue distributing relief assistance; resources and stocks of basic items are running low.

ECHO

ARGENTINA – Floods
- Heavy rains are still affecting parts of NE Argentina. According to media, 14 000 people remained still evacuated in the provinces of Formosa, Misiones, Corrientes and Chaco.
- On 7 July, more rain may still affect Misiones.

SMN, Media (1, 2)

INDONESIA – Volcanic Activity
- On 29 June Mount Sinabung (western Sumatra Island) erupted, spewing ash and lava. Since September 2013, it has sporadically erupted, forcing the evacuations of thousands of people. As of 29 June (BNPB), the number of displaced people is 14 382.

BNPB

Tonga, Wallis and Futuna – Earthquakes
- On 29 June two earthquakes of magnitude 6.4 M and 6.7 M (depth 10 km) struck the Pacific area between Wallis and Futuna and the island of Niuafo’ou (Tonga). USGS-PAGER indicate shaking up to "light". There was no tsunami threat and no damage was reported by the two earthquakes.

GDACS (1, 2), USGS (1, 2), PTWC, Media

Copyright, European Union, 2014. Map created by EC-JRC. The boundaries and names shown on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the European Union.