24 November 2014: World events

Reported high discharges/floods during the last 24 hours by National services

- United Kingdom: the Environment Agency has flood warnings active for the Anglian region.
- Switzerland: Ongoing high discharges on Lago di Lugano (alert level 3) - water levels are decreasing.
- Italy: Ongoing high discharges on Po river (alert level 2).
- Croatia: Ongoing high discharges on Sava river - water levels are decreasing, on Lonja river - water levels are stable.

Sources: EPAS

China - Earthquake UPDATE - Severe weather

- On 22 November, 08.55 UTC, a 5.9M earthquake, 14.6km depth, occurred in the south-western province of Sichuan with the epicenter located in Kangding county, approximately 39km north-west of Garzê town.
- The National Authorities reported five people dead and 55 injured, about 8 200 were evacuated.
- USGS PAGER estimated about 2 000 people exposed to Strong shaking.

Sources: GDACS, USGS, Chinese Government, Local Media

Countries affected by
- Severe Weather
- Volcano
- Earthquake

Symbols
- Earthquake
- Severe weather
- Volcano
- Epicenter
- Disputed Area

Cape Verde - Volcanic Eruption

- The volcano on the island of Fogo, Cape Verde, started erupting on 23 November at 10.00 (LT), emitting gas and lava.
- The National Authorities ordered the evacuation of the community of Chã das Caldeiras (700 – 1 000 people), located approximately 3km from the erupting peak, Pico do Fogo.

Source: Cabo Verde Government, NASA, Media

Morocco – Severe Weather

- Heavy rainfall affected central and southern Morocco in the past couple of days, with 80mm recorded in 24h near Agadir. Media report flash floods in the provinces of Marrakesh, Guelmim, Agadir and Quarzazate, with the death toll ranging from 14 to over 30 people, while many others were still missing.
- Hundreds of houses have reportedly collapsed and many roads were destroyed in the affected areas.

Sources: WMO, Media

Indonesia – Severe Weather UPDATE

- Heavy rainfall has caused river overflows and trigger landslides on the island of Sumatra in the past few days.
- As of 22 November, National authorities reports 1 084 houses flooded in North Aceh Regency, while in the whole of Aceh province 46 000 people were displaced.
- Furthermore, landslides in Central Tapanuli, Agam and Sijunjung Regencies have caused six deaths and destroyed several houses.

Sources: BMNP, Media, AHA Centre

Copyright, European Union, 2014. Map created by EC-JRC. The boundaries and names shown on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the European Union.