India – Heatwave
- More than 1,000 people have been killed in southern and eastern India, mostly in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, due to the prevailing heatwave conditions. Odisha and West Bengal states have also been affected; media report 67 deaths in Odisha and 13 in West Bengal.
- Over the next 48-72 hours the heatwave is expected to continue in the affected states; the temperatures may start slightly decreasing on 30 May.
- As of 27 May, a Red Warning for Heatwave is in effect for some areas in the state of Odisha.

Sources: IMD, Indian Government, Media

Uganda – Burundian refugees
- As of 20 May, around 5,520 individuals have arrived in Uganda – approx. 250 per week. In the last couple of days, the arrival rate has increased.
- The new arrivals are heading to the Nakivale and Oruchinga settlements in the south-western part of the country. They are being registered as asylum seekers. 95% of those who arrived before 10 April have already been granted refugee status.
- The UN foresees a total of 15,000 refugees to arrive in Uganda.

Sources: ECHO, UNHCR

Colombia – Severe weather
- Heavy rains affected northern Colombia over the last few days, causing river overflow, floods and power outages.
- More than 4,800 people were affected and 25 houses were destroyed in Boyaca and Arauca, mostly in the municipalities of Saravena, Arauca and Arauquita.
- Over the next 24 hours more heavy rains may still affect Arauca and Boyaca.

Sources: UN OCHA, IDEAM, Media

Mali – Humanitarian space
- A humanitarian worker was executed on 21 May, the third casualty of a humanitarian aid worker in Mali since the beginning of 2015, all of which occurred in Gao region.
- In a new attack against MINUSMA in Bamako on 25 May, one peacekeeper was killed and another seriously injured.
- In the North of Mali, increased insecurity reduces the limited humanitarian space. 31,500 people have been displaced during the last two weeks.

Sources: ECHO, IOM

U.S.A., Mexico – Severe weather
- Heavy rains, strong winds, hail and tornadoes have been affecting southern USA and north-eastern Mexico.
- In the USA, floods and damage were reported, with six deaths in Oklahoma and 13 in Texas, while 11 are still missing in the latter. Thousands of people are displaced and over 1,000 homes were damaged. A Disaster Declaration was issued for 24 Counties in Texas on 25 May.
- In Mexico, a tornado in Ciudad Acuña, Coahuila state, on 25 May, killed 13 people and injured 300.
- Over the next 24 hours, thunderstorms, hail, heavy rains and strong winds may still affect Coahuila (Mexico) and southern Plains (USA), including the affected areas.

Sources: NOAA, WHO, Local Government, CONAGUA, Media

Haiti – Drought
- Due to below-average rainfall, Integrated Food Security Phase Classification (IPC) "Crisis" level has been reached in parts of Haiti, severely affecting 180,000 people. Between 60% and 80% loss of the main local crops and vegetables in these areas has been confirmed.
- Difficulties in accessing water results in the reduction of daily meals or leads to community conflicts.
- Livestock has been severely affected and pressure has been put on alternative food resources (fishery).

Sources: ECHO, CNSA