Emergency Response Coordination Centre (ERCC) – ECHO Daily Map | 21/07/2016

World – Severe weather events

AFGHANISTAN
- Heavy rain has been affecting the country over the past few days causing floods.
- According to local media reports, as of 19 July, 17 people have been killed in Khost province and around 16 houses have been damaged in Kunar province.

NEPAL
- Heavy rain has been affecting several areas of the country over the past few days causing floods and landslides.
- According to local media, as of 20 July, three people have been killed and one has gone missing in the Central and Western regions, at least seven houses have been damaged and over 100 people have been evacuated in Tikapur municipality (Kailali district, Far-Western region). Media, as of the same date, also report 100 people affected and traffic disruptions in the regions of Mid-Western, Western, Western Development Region Nepal and Eastern.

AFGHANISTAN
- Heavy rain has been affecting the country over the past few days causing floods
- According to official reports, as of 19 July, 153 houses have been damaged in several municipalities of Miranda state.

VENEZUELA
- Severe weather, including heavy rain and strong winds, has been affecting the country over the past few days, causing floods.
- According to official reports, as of 19 July, at least seven houses have been damaged in several municipalities of Miranda state.

MALAYSIA
- Heavy rain has been affecting the country over the past few days causing floods
- According to media reports, as of 21 July, 476 people have been evacuated, several houses have been damaged and traffic has been disrupted in Kedah and Penang states. On 18 July at least 10 flights were cancelled from the Penang International Airport due to floods.

Copyright, European Union, 2016. Map created by EC-JRC/ECHO. The boundaries and names shown on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the European Union.