The forest fires in the municipality of Monchique (Faro district, Portugal) continue burning and it has two active fronts heading south-southeast toward the municipalities of Silves and Portimao. According to local media, as of 8 August, 31 people were injured, hundreds have been evacuated in Monchique, Portimao and Silves and dozens of houses have been damaged in the municipality of Monchique. Spain is supporting the Portuguese authorities with aerial resources under a bilateral agreement.