The crisis in the Lake Chad basin, affecting parts of Nigeria, Niger, Chad and Cameroon and triggered by a regionalized armed conflict, is mainly a protection crisis.

Over 2.6 million people have been forcibly displaced, while violence and insecurity have also had a negative impact on the lives and livelihoods of 17.4 million of local population in the affected areas.

Source: DG ECHO