400,000 people from Central America crossed Mexico illegally in 2018. 50% are agricultural workers and 80% of Guatemalans are from rural areas. More than 60% of unaccompanied minors from El Salvador are from rural areas.

396,300 refugees and asylum seekers (Honduras, Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua) by the end of 2018.

Only 15% of returnees from Mexico go back to cities, the rest go back to rural areas.

More than 50% of the remittances sent to Guatemala by migrants go to rural areas.

Only 11% of returnees from Honduras go back to cities, the rest go back to rural areas.

Only 15% of returnees from Mexico go back to cities, the rest go back to rural areas.

60,000 Nicaraguans requesting asylum in Costa Rica since 2018.

Total number of individuals per IPC phase:

- IPC 1 - Minimal: 10,409,000
- IPC 2 - Stressed: 5,970,000
- IPC 3 - Crisis: 3,158,000
- IPC 4 - Emergency: 756,924
- IPC 5 - Famine: 608,000

Total: 20,293,924

*More info: IPC

Source: FAO-IPC, UN, Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC)