Sudan | Flood Situation

Impact overview
- Heavy rains have been affecting several States of Sudan since the second week of August, triggering floods and causing 59 fatalities.
- More than 245,000 people are affected, approximately 32,000 houses destroyed and at least 16,000 damaged.

Source: DG ECHO as of 27 August
UN OCHA as of 26 August

Heavy rains have been affecting several States of Sudan since the second week of August, triggering floods and causing 59 fatalities. More than 245,000 people are affected, approximately 32,000 houses destroyed and at least 16,000 damaged.