The Horn of Africa region has faced heavy rainfall and widespread flooding, with many weather stations recording their highest rainfall in 40 years.

Floods and flash floods have directly affected almost 2.4 million people, with almost 1.1 million displaced across several districts and counties of Somalia, Ethiopia, Kenya, and Uganda.

Source: DG ECHO